

The Chanute Tribune

50 CENTS

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 2010

WWW.CHANUTE.C

UNDER THE RAINBOWS

Kathleen Carney/courtesy photo

Tuesday's rainbows as taken on Plummer Street near Cherry Street.

Chris Conklin/courtesy photo

Tuesday's rainbows over St. Patrick Catholic Church.;

Money the Pers assists a hip surg

Harold Campbell
Tribune Reporter

HUMBOLDT -- For B
like home.

The 60-year-old Humb in April, then following months of rehabilitation in Chanute.

Ball was able to return to his residence at

he and his wife, Laura, w
National Bank in Chanu employees, he decided to there.

While receiving treat
Elaine Leggett, explained
Person program.

"You're better off at h Ball said.

Brenda Mulberry, aging tor for the Parsons SKILL Money Follows the Pers said six people in this area program so far, while a nu process of participating in The program is funded t onstration grant the state r

Money from the grant a lived in a nursing facility months to receive service Community-Based Service
cally Disabled waiver pro
the community.

Mulberry said the prog Medicaid's traditional e care to a system offering g nating barriers that preven tioning back into the com

Dying Solino man makes it back to N

Tuesday's rainbows over St. Patrick Catholic Church.;

Chris Conklin/courtesy photo